2017 Cultural Immersion Program Providence University

2017 靜宜大學台灣體驗課程
VIETNAM

About Providence University

In answering to the recent national south bound policy of Taiwan, we're reaching out to the institution in Vietnam and intensify the collaboration. It is our sincere hope that Providence University could host the short-term study in Taiwan program for students from Vietnam.

Providence University is a Catholic co-educational institution that was founded in 1956 by an American congregation: the Sisters of Providence of Saint Mary-of-the-Woods, Indiana, USA. It is currently sponsored by the Catholic Diocese of Taichung. Providence University is one of the prominent educational institutions in Taiwan, with 22 departments, 19 graduate programs, two Ph.D. programs, 5 EMBA programs, and one Chinese Language Education Center. We have 12,000 undergraduate students, 1,200 graduate students and 400 full-time faculties (all approximate figures). PU offers fully taught English program in International Business Administration (BIBA) and also Graduate International Program (MBA). Furthermore, PU provides programs and courses are taught in English in the field of Science and information Science.

Goals of the Program

It's a 24-hour intermediate Chinese language course for the students of South East Asia. Three goals are set here to make to acquire the linguistic knowledge of language teaching and the skills in communicating in Chinese as well as the cultural awareness and understanding of Chinese-speaking societies, namely,

1. Linguistic knowledge of teaching Mandarin: students will explore the nature of Chinese language and learn about ways of teaching the language in Taiwan.
2. Applying and using Mandarin: Students will develop their listening speaking, reading and writing skills for necessary and effective interaction in Chinese.
3. Intercultural Competence: Students will gain knowledge and understanding of different valued rules, norm, expectations etc.
